Free help finding a job, writing a résumé, and getting a GED or job training. Free computers and phones to use.

When you call, it helps to:

- Say plainly what you need: food, a bed tonight, treatment, a bill paid.
- Have a phone number or address where they can reach you, even a friend's.
- Bring a photo ID if you have one. If you don't, call anyway.
- If the first place can't help, ask: "Who else should I call?"

Someone here cares about you.
