

HELP FOR VETERANS

Veterans Crisis Line

988 then press 1

National • 24/7

Text 838255

Free, confidential 24/7 crisis support for veterans, service members and their families. VA enrollment is not required.

Greene County Veterans Service Office

423-798-1707

101 Longview Dr (in the American Legion Post 64 building), Greeneville, TN 37743 • Mon-Fri 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.

Free help for veterans and families filing VA disability compensation and pension claims, ordering grave markers and medals, and getting other military benefits. Appointments by phone reduce wait times. Funded by Greene County government.

James H. Quillen VA Medical Center (Mountain Home VA)

423-926-1171

Corner of Lamont St and Veterans Way, Mountain Home, TN 37684, Mountain Home / Johnson City • 24/7 (varies by service)

Full-service VA medical center for the region, including a 24/7 emergency department, primary and specialty care, mental health, PTSD, addiction treatment, homeless veteran care, caregiver support and suicide prevention.

Morristown VA Clinic (nearest CBOC to Greene County)

423-586-9100

226 Euclid Ave, Suite A, Morristown, TN 37813 • Mon-Fri 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

VA community clinic offering primary care, mental health, women's health, labs, radiology, social services, telehealth and pharmacy. No VA clinic was found in Greene County itself. Other nearby clinics are Rogersville (401 Scenic Dr, Suite 201, 423-235-1471) and Johnson City (500 Washington Ave).

Mountain Home VA Homeless Program

423-926-1171

Mountain Home, TN 37684, Mountain Home / Johnson City

VA homeless services care coordinators help veterans who are homeless or at risk get immediate food and shelter, transitional and permanent housing (including HUD-VASH), and related services.

VFW Post 1990 (Andrew Johnson Post)

423-638-4201

70 Harlan St, Greeneville, TN 37745 (mail: PO Box 983, Greeneville, TN 37744)

Veterans of Foreign Wars post in Greeneville. Has a post Service Officer (Charles McLain, 2025-26) and holds monthly meetings and community breakfasts. The website has an 'Assistance' section, but programs are not described.

helpgreeneville.org

